

Bob Clifford

Mr. Clifford has over 30 years of experience raising capital, trading micro-cap stocks, and working with institutional and high net-worth investors. Prior to co-founding Liquid, he was Head of Capital Markets for MDB Capital Group, where he led the deal completion process for numerous successful transactions.

Previously, Mr. Clifford was a Managing Director at Think Equity; before that, he was a Senior Vice President at Sanders Morris Harris. Mr. Clifford started his career apprenticing for the legendary Felix Juda at Sutro & Company, and he remained at Sutro for the first 18 years of his career.

Mr. Clifford holds a B.S. in Business Administration from the University of Southern California.

In his spare time, he enjoys supporting his alma mater in a variety of ways; among them, he is a longstanding member of the USC Alumni Association's Board of Governors and the USC Athletics Board of Councilors. Mr. Clifford is also a member of the Board of Leaders for USC's new veteran's initiative, With Your Shield, a certificate program developed through the Marshall School of Business to help separating and retiring Naval Special Warfare families successfully transition into civilian life.
